

WeRateDogs – Insights to the Popular Twitter Account

Introduction

The twitter account “WeRateDogs” is one of the most popular and wholesome accounts on the site. The account posts pictures of various dogs, gives them a rating (usually 11/10 or higher), and compliments the dogs using words such as “doggo” or “pupper”. The person behind this account probably does not think much about the trends they produce when posting these tweets—what breeds are most commonly tweeted, what the typical rating is, what is the most popular. However, this is all information that can be assessed using analysis.

Average Rating

A large majority of ratings have a denominator of 10. In fact, out of 1896 tested ratings, 1881 have a denominator of 10. The average rating for WeRateDogs is 1.18, or 11.8/10. The lowest rating received was a 0, and the highest was a 177.6. This proves that WeRateDogs posts pictures of lot of good dogs who exceed the scale of being a perfect 10.

Most Rated Dogs

The top-rated dogs by WeRateDogs are golden retrievers, closely followed by Labrador retrievers, and then by chihuahuas, pembroke, and cardigans. This is shown in the graph below. Of course, the WeRateDogs knows a good boy when they see one. Look at this precious golden!

Popularity Statistics

This account is beloved by many. But, just how popular is it? The average tweet posted by WeRateDogs receives 8,705 favorites and 2,610 retweets. The most favorites the account ever received was 210,956 and the most retweets ever received was 78,749.